

The City of Middleton Ad Hoc Sustainability Committee Presents:

OCTOBER

Monthly Sustainability Seminar

Timebanking

A panel discussion by Lorrie Hurckes, Youth Court Coordinator and Assistant Director of Dane County Timebank, and Timebank coordinators Kathy Werner, Jane Fulwiler, and Cathy Riddle

Dane County
TIMEBANK

Neighbors Helping Neighbors

Middleton residents, teenagers, community organizers and business leaders are welcome to learn more about the newly formed Middleton chapter of the Dane County Timebank. Find out how you, your organization, business, family and friends can reap the rewards--financial and community-related--by using a system of non-monetary resource sharing.

Timebank, started in Dane County in 2005, is now one of the largest in the country. It is based on the ideas of social activist and Professor of Law Edgar S. Cahn, author of No More Throw-Away People. At this event learn how Timebank helps communities and neighbors reach out, connect and give and get from one another in an efficient, beneficial exchange of services and labor. Lorrie Hurckes, youth court coordinator and assistant director of the Dane County program, will give an overview of TimeBank's success overall and its opportunities for teens.

Thursday, October 8, 6:30pm

Archer Room, Middleton Public Library

Free, all are welcome. We value your input and participation.

(Take the stairs or the elevator from the main lobby).

*Monthly Sustainability Seminars are held on the first Thursday of each month at 6:30pm at the Archer Room. This is the thirteenth seminar in the series.
